SECOND BEST TAX PROGRAM BEFORE G. O. P.

Warrensburg, Sept. 17—(P)—A second best $138,250,000 tax program went before senate Republicans today with the often restated income levy still a big factor in the long tax deadlock.

The senate GOP caucus was called into a closed session to consider a new compromise program.

House Republican leadership developed during a three-week "breathing spell" recess of the legislature.

The senate Republicans were summoned into the tax caucus in advance of reconvening of the assembly itself, for a possible two weeks' windup of the 1951 session.

While the adjournment date of the longest session since colonial days has yet to be fixed formally, a month of October apparently is a Sept. 29 deadline on the assembly.

Should an agreement be reached on a tax program, assembly leaders plan to push that legislation through, as well as a bill reducing the state's congressional district from 33 to 29, during the next two weeks.

However, should the tax deadlock continue both that problem and reapportionment legislation could go over to a special session, probably early in 1952 under tentative discussions.

The house GOP tax program includes a new levy of one percent on real estate transfers, increases in the state's inheritance tax and a group of changes in the corporate net income tax.

At the same time, the house Republican leadership said the proposed income tax "was the most equitable and least burdensome" and submitted its compromise program "as a substitute for absolutely necessary to resolve the present stalemate."

There was also a possibility the one-half of one percent income tax would be revived in the senate, either by Republicans or Democrats or both.

General Ridgway Says Allies Ready to Resume Peace Talks When Communists Fix Place

By The Associated Press
Tokyo, Sept. 17—(P)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway today offered to renew suspended Korean cease-fire talks. But his message to Red commanders gave no indication that Kaesong was a satisfactory site.

The Reds broke off talks in that Korean city Aug. 23 in a continuing series of charges that United Nations ground and air forces were violating Kaesong's neutrality zone.

In the flurry of charges and denials, Ridgway on Sept. 5 proposed that the talks be moved to a new site. The Reds replied Saturday that the suggestion was "completely unsatisfactory and unacceptable."

Observers here speculated the "mutually satisfactory" conditions mentioned by Ridgway Monday include a new site for the talks.

In his stinging message Sept. 5 Ridgway called the Red charges "baseless and intentionally false" and added: "I cannot provide you with guarantees against your own failure to exercise control in an area for which you are responsible."

The supreme commander's message Monday was addressed to North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung and Gen. Peng Hsi-Huai, commander of Chinese forces in Korea.

Ridgway said the Reds "have inferred a desire that negotiations be resumed. . . I again emphasize my concern in the achievement of a just and honorable military armistice."

Ridgway rejected all but one Red claim that the United Nations have violated Kaesong's neutrality. The U. N. command has admitted that an Allied warplane strafed Kaesong by mistake Sept. 10. No deaths or damage was reported.

Lt. Col. Norman D. Edwards of Diamond, W. Va., was ordered to deliver the message to the Reds at Pusanmum. He flew there by helicopter from the advance U. N. base near Munsan.

Another helicopter took an Allied correspondent and an Allied photographer to the site.

It took Edwards just one minute to deliver the message. His only words were, "I have a message from General Ridgway to Kim Il Sung and Peng Hsi-Huai."

Mr. Campasino was fatally burned from steam from a wax filter. Kenneth Skinner, 46, of Titusville, who also was burned, is in "fair" condition at the hospital.

Born in Warren, April 10, 1920, the deceased is survived by his father, Frank Campasino of Sheffield; by his mother, Mrs. Merle Cussins of Titusville; by his wife, the former Doris Litzinger Jones; by seven brothers, Albert, Sidney, Frank, Walter, Edward and Paul Campasino, Titusville; Private Robert Campasino, home on leave from the U. S. Army; and James Campasino, on duty with the Army in Germany. The Red Cross director in Titusville is attempting today to have the latter brother flown home for the funeral.

Mr. Campasino served in the Army during World War II. He was inducted on September 3, 1943, and trained at Fort Devens, Mass., before sailing for Europe in June, 1944. He was with Co. C, 188th Engineer Combat Battalion, and served in northern France, the Rhineland, Ardennes and central Europe.

22 ARE CRUSHED
Campinas, Brazil, Sept. 17—(P)—Twenty-two persons were crushed to death and 500 injured yesterday after an old movie house collapsed during a Sunday matinee. Forty were listed as seriously hurt. Cause of the disaster was unknown.

SEVEN FATALITIES
Pittsburgh, Sept. 17—(P)—At least seven persons were killed in western Pennsylvania highway accidents during the week-end, two of them early today in a head-on auto crash on Route Eight near Hart's Run.

CONVICT SUICIDES
La Grange, Ky., Sept. 17—(P)—A convict, imprisoned for a 19-cent robbery, leaped head-first to his death from a state reformatory roof yesterday when guards surprised him and three other prisoners in hiding. Warden Renald L. Whaley said Willie Cole, 23, darted to the edge of the boiler room roof and dived to the concrete paving below.

MEADVILLE MAN LOW BIDDER ON 2 JOBS
When bids were opened in Harrisburg for proposed work to be done on Route 27 in Youngsville borough and Brokenstraw township, the lowest bidder was Paul V. Kobert of Meadville, whose bid was $110,861.55.

It is planned to widen 73 of a mile of existing pavement with plain concrete base 18 feet wide and to increase the width to 20 feet with an aggregate base.

The Kobert firm, bidding $49,916.05, was also low bidder for building an eye-beam bridge over Hemlock Creek in Glade township, and for improving .37 of a mile of highway at this bridge, through the Rapp property at Hemlock, which will eliminate a dangerous curve.

WARREN - BORN MAN Dead of Burns In Titusville Mishap

John J. Campasino, 31, who was born in Warren and attended school in Sheffield, died at 6:50 a. m. in Titusville Hospital from burns received while at work, Saturday, in the plant of the Trans-Penn Oil Company, Titusville.

Mr. Campasino was fatally burned from steam from a wax filter. Kenneth Skinner, 46, of Titusville, who also was burned, is in "fair" condition at the hospital.

Attendance Records Broken at Field Days Sponsored by Sportsmen's Club

All attendance records at Warren Field and Stream Club's popular Field Days were shattered over the weekend when more than 13,000 persons jammed Wilder Field for the two-day festivities.

About 3000 were on hand for Saturday's program, but the big jam came Sunday.

Every available inch of parking space inside Wilder Field was filled, and both sides of Route 6 were lined with parked cars from the Youngsville overhead bridge to the curve at Irvine.

State Police were on duty directing traffic throughout the afternoon and evening, and at frequent intervals the cars were jammed, almost bumper to bumper, from Irvine to Warren. Many of the cars had out-of-state licenses, attesting to the wide popularity of the Field Days.

Everything in the busy two-day program was run off as scheduled, and the weatherman cooperated in fine style after seeding a big black cloud hovering over the area Sunday morning.

Highlight of the two-day program was the drill Sunday afternoon by the Heather Highlanders Girls Pipe Band from Youngstown. Entertainment Saturday afternoon included a home-grown product, the fine Warren High Dragon Band under direction of Harry Summers.

Other features included a demonstration of speed wood chopping and axe throwing by Archie Lobdell, a Tidoute native, who is now New York State wood cutting champion; a demonstration of trick shooting with a revolver, a rifle and a shotgun by the nationally-known Fred L. Solis; plus, casting demonstrations by representatives from two fish rod companies; and outdoor movies featuring conservation and wildlife pictures.

Free pony rides Sunday afternoon proved an especially popular feature with the kiddies.

In addition to the entertainment features there were numerous outstanding exhibits that drew large crowds. These exhibits included a display of Pennsylvania fish, owned by S. Carlyle Sheldon, State Fish Warden supervisor at Conneaut Lake; a big wildlife display set up by the Pennsylvania Game Commission; a forestry display in charge of the State Department of Forests and Waters; a live milk display from the Valley View Milk Ranch; and a truck carrying several tanks of live trout from the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service's rearing ponds at Farnsworth.

The Fox Hole Inn did a record business with its luscious hamburgers and hot dogs, and other features on the midway, including skeet, archery, rifle shooting, and numerous games proved popular attractions.

Winners of the various events included:

Expert Handling of Plane Saves 53 Lives

Chicago, Sept. 17—(P)—A Florida-bound plane crash-landed yesterday and the pilot's expert handling of the crippled ship was credited with saving the lives of 53 persons aboard.

Pilot-Capt. E. J. Mountain of Miami, Fla., was lauded for making an "excellent" belly-landing of the converted twin-engine Army C-46 in a field near Midway Airport. Mountain brought the ship down shortly after getting airborne when the left engine failed.

The plane was badly damaged and both engines were torn away in the wheels-up landing but none of those aboard was seriously injured. Most of the 50 injured suffered only minor cuts and bruises.

Parade at Sugar Grove Is Witnessed By Ten Thousand

With an estimated 10,000 in attendance, the annual Sugar Grove Community Fair parade, Friday night, was a big success, with Lakewood and Sugar Grove capturing the most prizes in the parade.

Sponsored jointly by the Fire Department and the American Legion, the parade was a highlight of the fair. The parade judges were Dr. Frank Tyler of Fluvanna, Willis Wilson of Westfield, Clyde Lee and Howard Preston of Cattaraugus, T. F. Mattison of Kennerly, Lloyd Johnson of Frewsburg, Charles Pearson of Russell, Mrs. Mildred Carter and Ed C. Lowrey of Warren.

Winners in the parade were announced as follows: Jamestown Vikings, best drum corps; Warren VFW, best band; North East, best appearing fire company; Lakewood, best Legion post; Burti, best firemen's auxiliary; Lakewood, most firemen in line; Lakewood, most Legionnaires in line; Tionesta, fire company from the greatest distance.

North East Legion, from the greatest distance; Sugar Grove Garden Club, best float; Pleasant township, most comical fire department; Michael Zurken, Sugar Grove, oldest equipment in line, an old bicycle; Chanders Valley, first, and Sugar Grove Juniors, second, for the best school float.

Space did not permit publication today of a lengthy writeup with names of prize winners at the fair, which will be printed Tuesday.

Services Will Be Held at Corry Funeral Home at 1:45 O'clock With Committal at Bear Lake

Services in memory of Guy Goodwin Durlin and his wife Della Swigart Durlin, victims of Saturday's tragic shooting episode in Bear Lake, will be held Tuesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock from the Bracken & Keating Funeral Home in Corry, with the Rev. William Chamberlain, of St. Francis Episcopal church in Youngsville, officiating. Interment will follow in the cemetery at Bear Lake.

Maddened by jealousy and suspicion, a 68-year old Bear Lake man murdered his 44-year-old wife and killed himself on the porch of their farm home, late Saturday, leaving as orphans the couple's five children.

Evidence of the treacherous eternal triangle runs like a crimson trickle through the sordid story of domestic discord which led to a blazing and tragic climax when Guy G. Durlin killed his wife, Della, with two blasts from a 16-gauge single barreled shotgun, then shot off the top of his own head after apparently making sure his wife was dead.

Left shocked and stunned by the tragedy perpetrated by a man who was the victim of an outburst of pent-up fury, residents of the Bear Lake community were able to piece together the pitiable story. They agreed that Durlin believed his wife had been too friendly with a neighboring farmer.

The shooting took place at the Durlin farm on what is known as the Goshen Road, leading out of the village of Bear Lake, Saturday afternoon some time between 4:15 and 4:45, after a day of bickering between the couple, during which Durlin had been heard to mention the name of the neighbor, whom he is known to have associated with his wife.

Events leading up to the shooting as uncovered by the investigating officers, including a member of the Warren barracks of the state police, Deputy Sheriff S. Seacor and Coroner Ed Lowrey, divulged the fact that there has been discord and bickering between the man and wife for some time. Recently, Mrs. Durlin caused a warrant to be issued for her husband. He was brought to Warren and lodged in jail for several days during which he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace T. M. Greenlund. The charge was later withdrawn at the instance of his wife, but not before the husband had been examined by a physician on suspicion that he may have been a mental case.

The couple had resided on the farm where the shooting occurred for the past six or seven years, and neighbors reported to officials that most of this time there had been evidence of discord. Both had been married before and there are children by previous unions. Children surviving the couple are: Winifred Jeanne, 16; Patricia, 14; Joseph, 12; James, 9; and Tommy, 8. Glenn, 19, is a son of Mrs. Durlin by a former husband, and a Mrs. Marjorie Rhinehart is a daughter of Durlin by his first marriage.

According to one of the children, the couple was having bitter words early in the afternoon. William Eddy, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Eddy, who reside at (Turn to Page Eight)

Senate Group Will Question Boyle On
R.F.C. Connections

Washington, Sept. 17—(P)—Senator Mundt (R-SD) said today William M. Boyle, Jr., Democratic national committee chairman, "will be called" by a senate group inquiring into his relations with the R.F.C. but that "the time to hear Mr. Boyle is not yet."

Mundt is active in the inquiry into charges that Boyle has used his political position to influence operations of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, big government lending agency.

Two other members of a senate investigating subcommittee disagreed over interpretation of testimony in their inquiry into Boyle's role in the granting of $645,000 of government loans to a St. Louis printing firm in 1948. The loans have been paid off in full.

Twelve Inductees To Leave Sept. 26

The Warren Selective Service Board has announced that the following 12 young men will report for induction at Erie on Wednesday, September 26:

Harold W. Granquist of Russell, leader; Robert A. Wood, Edwin Stapfer, Norman K. Olson, and Robert W. Erickson, all of Warren; Guy J. Summerson and Richard A. Abbott, of Sugar Grove; Boyd H. Crooks, Jr., Kinzua; Raymond R. Hahn, Jr., Sheffield; William L. Johnson, Grand Valley; Steve W. Rafalski, Pittsfield, and Frank E. Firth, Jamestown.

Melvin G. Keller, chairman of the board, reminds the inductees that Standard Time will again be in effect by time they leave Warren, so they are to report at the Pennsylvania station at 7 a. m., E. S. T., September 26.

Registration for Donor Appointments For Wednesday Lagging in Sheffield

Sheffield, Sept. 17—Registration for blood donor appointments is seriously lagging, according to Mrs. W. H. Rawson, chairman of the local blood drive committee and next Wednesday's visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile is but a few days away.

Mrs. Rawson pointed out that 205 persons signed up as donors for the first visit of the Bloodmobile last March, and even then Sheffield was a few pints short of its 150 pint quota.

If present registration figures are any indication the coming drive will fall far short of its goal.

Hence an urgent plea is being sent forth to everyone who can possibly join in the donor march next Wednesday. The Bloodmobile will be set up in the basement of the Methodist church from 11 a. m. until 5 p. m.

Persons planning to contribute should remember the following: DO NOT eat fats such as cream and butter, meat, fried foods and eggs for at least four hours before your appointment. DO eat during the four hours such items as fruit, fruit juices, bread, crackers, dry toast, raw vegetables or vegetables boiled in plain water, jam, jelly or honey, skim milk, black coffee or tea with sugar only.

There will be transportation provided that day for those needing it. Phone the church, 2721, if a ride is desired. The appointment schedule must be strictly adhered to in order that the work can be completed so persons are urged to be prompt. If at the last minute one finds he cannot appear he should contact Mrs. Rawson.

After one arrives Wednesday at the blood bank headquarters he will register with Mrs. Richard Sauter or Mrs. Wallace Sauter. Weight, temperature, blood pressure and count will be taken and (Turn to Page Eight)

WORKMAN SCALDS TO DEATH IN TITUSVILLE

Titusville, Sept. 17—(P)—A blast of steam at the Trans-Penn Oil Refinery scalded to death John J. Campasino, 31, and seriously burned another worker while the two were cleaning the inside of a 20-foot deep wax filter Saturday.

Kenneth Skinner, 46, of Titusville, RD 2, is reported in fair condition in Titusville Hospital.

CANTEN MEETING

All young people of the community are reminded to be at The Spot at 8:00 o'clock this evening for a Canteen committee meeting.

Considerable business to come up for discussion will include election of new board members and activities of the fall and winter months. Dancing will follow the business session. Since the Canteen belongs to the youth of Warren, these younger citizens are urged by President Leroy Salerno to attend the meeting and take a hand in its policies, plans and management.

Girl Hurt in Fall, Others Injured

Sharon Louise Nelson, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nelson, Warren RD 2, is a patient in Warren General Hospital as the result of a fall, Sunday, when she toppled six feet from cement steps onto a brick pile. The little girl suffered scalp lacerations on top of her head, and is detained as a patient pending X-rays to show whether her skull is fractured.

William Nickles, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nickles, Warren D 3, had to have 14 sutures inserted to close severe hand wounds which were suffered when he fell while carrying a piece of glassware in his hand. He was treated at the hospital on Sunday and discharged.

Stanley Jackson, Russell RD 1, was treated and discharged on Sunday after he suffered a two-inch laceration when an automobile hood fell on his head.

Helen Howanice of Ludlow, injured when struck by a flying object while at the automobile races, was discharged after seven sutures were required to close a laceration.

By Lt. Dick Selverling
Camp Atterbury, Ind., Sept. 15—(P)—Thousands of 28th Division soldiers headed for home in Pennsylvania today as 14-day pre-European leaves started for the "Keystone" Division GIs early this morning.

Half the division's personnel will be home from September 15 to October 1. The troops remaining at Camp Atterbury will receive leaves from October 1 to October 15.

All of the soldiers will be back at Camp Atterbury by October 15 to wind up final details for their European trip in November. The 28th is to become one of General Dwight D. Eisenhower's six American divisions stationed somewhere in Germany as part of the Atlantic Pact Army.

The commander of the 28th Major General Daniel B. Strickler, at his home in Lancaster on a 14-day leave, predicted that the entire 28th will be in Europe by the end of November. The general said he will lead the main vanguard "possibly early in the month." An advance detachment, leaving even sooner, will fly to Germany to arrange for billeting the division on the continent.

Asked how his troops felt about going to Europe, the general replied, "morale is fine and everyone seems to be facing the situation." (Turn to Page Eight)

CONVENTION FEATURE—The Warren County Holiness Association is holding its convention this week in Pilgrim Holiness church, Fourth avenue, beginning this evening and holding services nightly at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. E. E. Grosse, superintendent of the Washington and Philadelphia District of the Church of the Nazarene, is guest speaker, while the Christiana Trio of Allentown Bible College is in charge of the music and will have special singing for each service. This is a combined effort on the part of several churches of the county to have a spiritual revival and the public is cordially invited to enjoy the ministry in both sermon and song. Mass services next Sunday, 2:30 and 7:30, will be held in the Church of the Nazarene, Pennsylvania avenue at Irvine street.

Police Work Closely with Safety Patrols in Guarding Children

Motorists Are Warned That the Laws Restricting Speed in School Zones Must Be Obeyed

In discussing the efforts being put forth by the Warren Borough Police Department to assure the safety of school children going to and from the borough schools, Chief Mike Evan emphasized today that "this is no safety campaign, it is simply a job to be done every day there is school."

With the opening of classes early this month, cross-walks have been painted and the street approach to each school is marked with "SCHOOL" in yellow letters several feet in height. Patrolmen are working closely with the school safety patrols in guarding the children, and in doing duty at crossings near the schools.

"We feel these are the most important intersections in town at these certain hours," said Mr. Evan, and warned motorists that arrests will be made for failing to stop at school signs. He also took occasion to remind motorists of the state law in regard to speed when passing a school, and quoted the law that a 15-mile an hour speed must be observed by "All vehicles, except those restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds, when passing a school during recess or while children are going to or leaving school during opening or closing hours."

"It would be a wise parent who accompanies his child, if in the lower grades, to school one day, to determine just what route he takes," said Chief Evan. "See where he crosses the busy streets, and perhaps re-route him by a safer route if it is possible."

He also urged motorists to watch school bicycle riders, as so many of the youngsters now use "bikes" in going to school. He praised school officials for erecting racks to store the "bikes" so they will not be scattered about the schoolyards and become a hazard in time of fire or fire drills. "Double riding on a bicycle is very unsafe," he said, "and under a borough ordinance a penalty is provided for that violation." He said bicycle riders should be careful to observe traffic regulations of other vehicles because a bicycle is classed as such. Chief Evan said that in its efforts to safeguard the school children, his men are concentrating on selective enforcement, using spot maps which show where accidents occur and just what type of accident is most prevalent at a certain place. Traffic lights near the schools are timed, he said, to give the most protection at the to and from hours. The spot maps indicate also which traffic violations cause accidents.

In the interest of traffic safety, 97 arrests for "moving violations" were made by borough police during August, 53 for failing to stop at lights, seven for failing to observe stop signs, thirty for speeding, two for reckless driving, one for driving over a fire hose, and four for driving while intoxicated.

Cross-eyed and near-sighted children usually are the best students, says the American Optometric Association.

SAFETY MARKERS—Police Chief Mike Evan and Patrolman Bill Hewitt inspect the big block-letter "school" sign and crosswalk markers at Conewango avenue and Jackson street. Similar safety markers have been painted on streets approaching all of the schools in the borough.

BUSY SPOT—One minute after the first photo was taken, the same street intersection looked like this. It is a graphic example of how quickly traffic conditions change, and indicates the need for motorists to exercise every precaution, especially in the vicinity of schools.

SAFETY AT WORK—Borough Patrolman Hewitt checks on work of safety patrol at street intersection near Johnson school. The safety patrol youngsters are doing a wonderful job in helping the school kids cross busy streets.

STOP SIGNAL—These Johnson school children wait behind outstretched arms of one of their Safety Patrol Leaders until leader says it's safe to cross the intersection. Leaders are stationed at many intersections and find their school mates very cooperative since they all are trying to keep their Green Safety Pennants flying at their respective schools. An accident of any kind means loss of the Green Pennant for a month. (Times-Mirror Photos).

Meeting Is Planned To Discuss Plans For Cub Pack No. 2

Committee members for Cub Pack 2, which is sponsored by the Johnson PTA, have completed plans for beginning fall activities and a meeting for parents who have boys eight years old by January 1st has been scheduled at Johnson school from 7:00 until 9:00 p. m. Thursday.

The Cub Scout program will be explained by Vance Weld and Frank Seely, of the Boy Scout Council, and all parents of boys in this age group are invited and urged to be on hand.

During the week following this meeting, the committee will be busy with three different sessions. At the first, it is expected 10 to 12 dens will be organized; at the second, den mothers will be given materials and instructions; while the final meeting will be given over to programming and to plans for pack meetings.

The first regular fall meeting for the pack has been scheduled for 7:00 p. m. Monday, October 1st, when a number of Cubs will be graduated into the Boy Scouts. All boys and their families are assured of a special treat in the entertainment which has been secured for this occasion.

The executive committee of Pack 2 is composed of James Nordine, Cubmaster; James Palmer, secretary, and Walter Pearson, chairman.

Letters to the Editor

September 14, 1951.

The Editor,
Warren Times-Mirror,
Warren, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I am working on a biography of my father, Nelson Platt Wheeler of Endeavor, Pa., and I am writing to you and your readers for help. My father was born in November, 1841, and died in March, 1920. For 50 years he was managing partner of Wheeler and Dusenbury, which firm carried on its lumber operations from 1844 to 1939. My father was also a member of Congress in the House of Representatives from 1897 to 1911. He was an earnest Christian and was a leader in having the Post Office named Endeavor, instead of Wheeler, after the Christian Endeavor Society which preceded the church in that community.

I will call the book "Pine Knots and Bark Peelers," and will try to cover the story of the two preceding Wheeler generations, beginning with William Wheeler on the headwaters of the Delaware River in 1795, my great grandfather, including William F. Wheeler, my grandfather, and N. P. Wheeler, Jr., my brother, and two nephews, now in the lumber business on the Pacific Coast, Joseph Farley and Kenneth Smith.

I would like to secure letters of my father or of my grandfather and great grandfather, or news items about them, and I am hoping that the publication of this letter in your valued columns will produce material for the biography. My address is 114 East 84th Street, New York 28, N. Y., and I will be most grateful for any help you can give or your readers can supply in the making of this book.

Sincerely yours,
W. Reginald Wheeler.

ANOTHER DEFEAT FOR REDS

Coming on the heels of success at San Francisco, the Big Three's progress at Washington on issues affecting Germany is almost too good to be true.

Top American, British and French officials agreed without reservation that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower should be authorized to create a unified European army, including German forces.

This in essence is the French plan, but until now it had been resisted by both Britain and the United States. When Eisenhower himself endorsed the proposal, the latter two countries underwent a change of heart.

The agreement clears the way for greater speed in the organization of effective European defense. How to handle the problem of German rearmament had continuously plagued Western relations.

It should not be forgotten, however, that the Germans have minds of their own. Though the Bonn government is thoroughly committed to the West, there has been no enthusiasm for rearmament in Western Germany up to now.

The chief reasons have been fear of being trampled in a Russian offensive toward the Atlantic, and reluctance to bear arms until they have political equality.

Fully aware of this obstacle, the Big Three foreign ministers also acted at Washington to remove it by preparing to give Bonn as nearly an independent status as is possible for a divided nation living under direct Russian threat.

The diplomats will offer the Germans not a peace treaty but a "peace contract" which will closely resemble it. Under this arrangement, the Allied occupation would be officially ended and Western forces would become "defense troops" aiding the Germans. Bonn would have a high degree of control over German affairs, except where seizure by internal or external anti-democratic forces threatened.

The price for this contract would be German participation in the European defense army.

If this peace contract is engineered as planned, and accepted by Bonn on Allied terms, Germany will be pulled into the Western orbit almost as completely as Japan.

Obviously, this is a goal eminently desired by the West. By the same token, it is a condition the Soviet Union must hope to prevent. Russian foreign policy for six years has been pointed toward the winning of Japan and Germany. What will Moscow do if both slip irretrievably from Communist grasp?

On the answer to that question could hinge the issue of peace or war in the next 12 months.

Up at Sheffield a strenuous effort is being made by those in charge to secure sufficient registered donors to assure the Bloodmobile meeting the assigned quota when it visits there Wednesday. This is a reminder to every one qualified and physically able to contact the good citizens organizing the project and plan to be on hand to give a pint of blood.

Sugar Grove residents are to be commended for the success of the annual community fair which came to a most satisfactory conclusion with the regularly scheduled programs Saturday afternoon and evening. It is the opinion of everyone present that the largest crowd in history witnessed the annual parade Friday evening, which incidentally, would have done credit to a much larger community.

The Warren Field and Stream Club, enjoying perfect cooperation from the Weatherman, staged one of the most successful Field Day projects in the history of this progressive organization, when it staged programs at Wilder Field Saturday and Sunday before record crowds. Congratulations, boys, it was a swell job.

It was a delightful weekend for most everyone in the area, and especially followers of the Warren High School football team, elated over the 26-0 victory over the Nurseryites in the annual game played at Franklin Friday evening.

According to reports, wheateakes were made thousands of years ago. Those must be the ones they're serving in some restaurants.

Here And There

This 'n' That: High praise for the program now showing at the Columbia Theater featuring Walt Disney's great picture, "Alice in Wonderland," along with the Disney featurette "Nature's Half Acre" was expressed by a reader of this column after seeing the show in a Jamestown playhouse recently; the family was so thrilled with the entire entertainment that it was decided that they will see it again during the local appearance. . . . Without taking sides in the issue we might mention that a Youngsville visitor to the office describes a pat on the back for members of the borough council for what he described as "a progressive" decision on the road question there. . . . In addition to Reg. Admiral S. Delany and the other "brass" that will be on hand Wednesday evening to give commendation to the men of the Jamestown Reserve Division for winning the District Three annual inspection there will be outstanding citizens of both Jamestown and Warren who have accepted invitations to be in the gallery when the presentation is made. . . . The new Spencer Hospital School of Nursing was formally dedicated last week at Meadville by Most Rev. John Mark Gannon, D. D., bishop of the Erie Catholic diocese. . . . Farmer Marlin, who made a big hit on frequent appearances at Celoron Skateland last winter, will be featured in the main bout of the fourth and final pro wrestling outdoor show of the season Wednesday evening on the Ramage-Hesson field in Oil City meeting Ruffy Silverstein, with the preliminary presenting wagers, Tom Thumb and Tony Roe. . . . Folks up Sugar Grove way did themselves proud with the wonderful parade they staged Friday evening before a crowd, estimated at around 10,000, applauding the procession along the line of march; congratulations!

Monday Potpourri: St. Bernard's High School Ramblers, of Bradford, 34 strong, stopped in Warren Sunday morning about 10:30 o'clock long enough to have lunch at the Beebe Restaurant, en route to Oil City where they played St. Joseph's High at the Ramage-Hesson gridiron. . . . An echo of the Trinity Church picnic held at Wildcat Park, Ludlow, is discovered in the weekly bulletin distributed Sunday morning, which says "some things were overlooked at the picnic and may be claimed at the church office: One blue dinner plate; one blue glass; one kitchen fork, blue handle and one kitchen spoon, red handle. . . . The Elks Lodge bulletin announcing the meeting tomorrow evening contains a reminder that there will be a Peanut Party Saturday, September 29. . . . Ira Brown, former Warren laundry owner, who operates a grocery store in Bear Lake, was one of the first persons on the scene following the double tragedy in that village Saturday afternoon. . . . They say the Dragons had the support of an unusually large number of Warren fans when they took the field against the Nurseryites at Franklin Friday night, which probably helped to inspire the Blue and White to the 26-0 victory. . . . Residents of the area did not lack for places to go over the weekend, what with community fairs under way at Sugar Grove, Wattsburg and Spartansburg, the Field and Stream Club days, and the potato festival program at Corry with Youngsville High furnishing the opposition against the Beavers in the Potato Bowl game.

Size of Future Air Force Rests on A-Bomb Production

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Because it takes two or three years from time new aircraft are designed and ordered to time first deliveries are made, size of the Air Force and Naval aviation of the future have to be figured on the number of atomic bombs that will be available that far ahead.

"Air power must be made ready to bring atomic power to bear directly on the enemy's ground forces," Air Secretary Thomas K. Finletter declared provocatively in address before Air Force Association.

Defense Department and Atomic Energy Commission will make no official statements on size of U. S. A-bomb stockpile. Stephen White, in Look Magazine last December, estimated stockpile at 750 bombs. White now says production rate is 250 a year—five a week. As production capacity for fissionable materials is now being rapidly expanded, Air Force of 1954 or 1955 must be prepared to deliver several times that number. Also, if the H-bomb works, planes must be ready to carry it.

AIR FORCE Secretary Thomas K. Finletter says aircraft production isn't as far behind as many reports have indicated. Changes in design and rapid expansion of program did throw deliveries 50 planes behind schedule in fiscal year ending last June 30.

Machine tools and materials deliveries are still delaying factors. Production is expected to be 11 per cent behind schedule through next February. This lost ground will be made up by June. Deliveries will be 35 per cent ahead of schedule by December, 1952. But this schedule could be wrecked by disasters like recent Kansas flood or prolonged strikes like Cleveland's Alcoa's.

Flying over North Pole has now become such routine business it's no longer news. U. S. Air Force 58th Reconnaissance Squadron based at Eielson Field, Alaska, recently completed 500th weather flight over pole since 1947. Flying B-29's this outfit has learned the hard way all there is to know about arctic flying.

Sixteen hour flights at 50 degrees below zero Fahrenheit are normal. With magnetic compasses useless in this area, navigation has been aided by gyroscopic compass and radar. Celestial bearings at twilight—after sun sinks and before stars come out—has been aided by a sky compass that takes polarized ray bearings on sun after it has sunk below horizon.

INCREASING number of paraplegics in Veterans' Administration hospitals is creating a major problem. Most serious is the low morale of men paralyzed from waist down. Korean war is adding to number of these men who may never walk again. Present number is said to be over 600.

Cases of these paraplegics is complicated by another 700 similarly afflicted veterans who were crippled not in the war, but in automobile accidents and similar non-service injuries received in civilian life, after discharge from the armed services. Both service and non-service-connected cases are kept in the same wards.

The service-connected men get $360 a month pension, plus hospital treatment and extra allowance for wives and children. The non-service-connected cases get only $80 a month.

Republican National Committee Chairman Guy George Gabrielson, in circular letter to GOP workers, says issues in 1952 election will be: morality in government, demonstrated incompetence of the Truman administration to achieve peace, coddling of Communists at home and abroad, lower U. S. standard of living due to high taxes and inflation, and Truman's socialist threat against freedom.

IT COULD HAVE HAPPENED ONLY IN AMERICA!

PRIMITIVE MAN SPENT ALL HIS TIME DEFENDING HIMSELF AND GETTING ENOUGH FOOD TO STAY ALIVE.

STARVATION AND WANT WAS THE LOT OF THE ANCIENT WORLD OF GREECE AND ROME

THE MIDDLE AGES HAD LAND USED IN COMMON REGULATED BY AUTHORITY. THERE WAS NO PROFIT MOTIVE. THE RESULT WAS STARVATION!

FOR 2300 YEARS OF CIVILIZATION, MAN HAD STRUGGLED AGAINST STARVATION UNTIL-

OUR BRAND NEW AMERICAN GOVERNMENT WAS FORMED TO PROTECT EVERY MAN'S FREEDOM ...:TO PROTECT HIS RIGHT TO LIFE, LIBERTY AND PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS, SO LONG AS HE DID NOT INTERFERE WITH THOSE SAME RIGHTS OF ANY OTHER MAN.

IN THE LAST 160 YEARS, THE WORLD'S FIRST FREE PEOPLE PRODUCED MORE OF EVERYTHING. THEY MADE THE GREATEST ECONOMIC PROGRESS IN ALL THE 2300 YEARS OF HISTORY!

THIS WAS BECAUSE AMERICANS WERE FREE TO -

- ① PLAN, WORK & EARN FOR THEMSELVES
- ② SOLVE THEIR OWN PERSONAL PROBLEMS AS BEST THEY COULD
- ③ ACQUIRE AND OWN PROPERTY

WITH A MINIMUM OF REGULATION BY GOVERNMENT
- AND THEIR EARNINGS AND SAVINGS WERE FREE FROM OPPRESSIVE TAXATION!

NEITHER SOCIALISM, COMMUNISM, FASCISM, NOR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT-CONTROLLED "ISM" HAS GIVEN PEOPLE AS MUCH AS FREE AMERICANS HAVE EARNED FOR THEMSELVES!

REMEMBER WHAT WILLIAM PENN SAID -

"Men must be governed by GOD or they will be ruled by tyrants."

BE CHARITABLE TO THOSE WHO ARE TRULY IN NEED LEST GOVERNMENT BE USED TO PROVIDE FOR PEOPLE INSTEAD OF PROTECTING THEM.

ARTISTIC CAPS—Gerda Lawrence, art teacher at the high school, has the rare ability of imparting to others her personal enthusiasms, no matter to what field the conversation may turn. Shown here with pupils of her ceramics class at Warren High School, she is handing on to them benefits of her experiences in the summer school at Alfred University. Rated one of the five best ceramics school in the country, the Alfred classes had much to offer in the way of basic knowledge and current trends and Mrs. Lawrence has come home filled with ideas for the making and firing of clay articles. Shown with her are John Chilcott, pouring slip or liquid clay into a mold which he has prepared; and Marcia Stevens, who is engaged in sanding a plaster figurine. On the desk before them are a number of pieces already complete or in the various stages necessary for production of the completed article. Young Waite, the teacher says, has had remarkable success in the use of Scandia clay for one of the pieces he has turned out.

MR. AND MRS. PERRY J. LAUFFER, JR.

Beautiful baskets of gladioli decorated either end of the altar in North Warren Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon for the wedding of Barbara Helen Gray, daughter of Mrs. Martin Anderson of Jackson Run road, and Perry J. Lauffer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lauffer, Warren-Jamestown road.

The ceremony was performed at 1:30 p. m. by the Rev. Robert C. Knapp, with Mrs. Watson Jamieson at the organ to play traditional bridal airs. Her numbers included, "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

Wearing a simple ballerina length gown of nylon net over bridal satin, the bride carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, with a shower of white satin streamers. Her gown was styled with high, illusion neckline, long sleeves of net, a bodice closing down the back with tiny satin buttons, and double skirt. Tiny sprays of lilies of the valley were attached at intervals over the entire frock and the same flowers trimmed the sweetheart headpiece of shirred net which held her shoulder length veil of matching net. Her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift.

She was given in marriage by her uncle, Walter W. Gray, with her sister, Donna Gray, as maid of honor and Shirley Hansen, Stoneham, as her bridesmaid. Their ballerina gowns of peacock blue nylon net over taffeta had sparkling trim and fishtail necklines. Headbands matched their frocks and each had a colonial bouquet of yellow pompons.

Kenneth Reynolds served Mr. Lauffer as best man and ushers were Kenneth Frazier and the bridegroom's cousin, Raymond Rossey, Westleyville.

The bride's mother chose grape colored crepe for her frock and Mrs. Lauffer wore royal blue, each with black accessories and a pink rose corsage. Mrs. Estelle Lacy, grandmother of the bride, wore white roses with a gray print.

Approximately 150 guests attended the reception given from two until five o'clock in the American Legion Home, where baskets of gladioli and fall flowers were used in attractive decorations, and a tiny bride couple topped the four-tiered cake served by Ann Anderson, step-sister of the bride, Nancy Lauffer, sister of the bridegroom, poured and Mrs. Robert Sibbe was at the punchbowl. Guests included relatives and friends from Erie, Dunkirk, Jamestown, Kane, Akeley, Russell and New Bethlehem.

The couple left later for a wedding trip to southern points, the bride traveling in a gabardine suit of forest green, with which she wore alligator accessories. After September 22, the couple will be at home to friends in Jackson Run road. Mrs. Lauffer attended the local high school and is a New Process Company employee; Mr. Lauffer attended the local high school and is employed by the Warren Axe and Tool Company.

Honoring the bride-elect with showers were Mrs. Perry Lauffer, Sr.; Shirley Hansen; Nancy Lauffer; Mrs. Robert Jackson, with the senior Lauffers giving the rehearsal party.

Borough Teachers To Hear Reports Tuesday

In a meeting held by the Warren Borough Teachers executive council, held to discuss plans and policies for the new school year, the president, Edna Glasser, urged the cooperation of all members in carrying out plans which will be of advantage to all teachers and pupils.

Building representatives are asked to get other members out to the next regular meeting of the Teachers' Association, to be held at the high school study hall tomorrow afternoon.

The program at that time will include reports of the National Education Association convention held in San Francisco and the Pennsylvania State Education Association leaders' workshop held at Chambersburg.

SERVING SUPPER
The Men's Class of Sheffield Methodist church invites the public to its spaghetti supper to be served at the church Thursday evening. The hours will be from 5:30 until 7:30 o'clock, with the Rev. Grant L. Mottern as the chef.

ELECTA CIRCLE
Electa Circle members of First Methodist church will hold their regular meeting at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Richard Arnold, 304 Crescent Park.

Complete Roll of All County Nurses For Civil Defense

In a meeting held by members of the Warren County Nurses' Association, members voted to continue their efforts toward building up a complete roster of all professional nurses in the county, whether active or inactive, in the interests of the Civilian Defense Council's program.

The next step will be a questionnaire for all registered nurses in the area as reported by the Bureau of Professional Licensing, Board of Nurse Examiners. Practical nurses will be reached through a continuing survey.

Announcement was made at the meeting of the urgency for all nurses interested in sectional activities to attend the September 22nd meeting of District 7, Pennsylvania State Nurses Association, at St. Vincent's Hospital in Erie, at which time discussions will center on "Sectional Activities After Redistricting."

The program chairman, Mrs. Hazel Barley, introduced Rudolph Choun, of North Warren's Flowerland, who presented a very instructive and pleasing program on the care and arrangement of cut flowers. Mr. Choun demonstrated proper cutting and treatment of flowers, following with artistic arranging, and then discussed unusual yet simple decorative schemes which can be used to give a pleasing effect without involving excessive expense.

Mrs. Irene Schrecongost, Miss Clara Hammer, Miss Joan McGarry and Mrs. Barley were hostesses for the evening.

Swimming Classes For Senior Scouts - Y-Teens

Attention of Y-Teens and Girl Scouts is called to announcement that swimming classes for their pleasure and instruction are to be started at the YMCA pool Thursday evening of this week. The time is 7:00 until 8:00 o'clock with free swimming for girls who belong to the "YM" and a fee of 25 cents for the others.

Red Cross classes will be organized, with Dick Ruhlman as instructor, and only junior and senior high school girls and Girl Scouts eligible for registration. It is hoped all the girls who are eligible will take advantage of this opportunity to advance in their swimming abilities.

Instruction Classes For Scouts Are Announced

Two announcements of interest to Senior Scouts are made today by the county Girl Scouts office, both dealing with special instruction classes about to get under way.

Girls in this age group are given the opportunity of signing up for tennis instruction to be given each Monday and Wednesday at Ben Scallies' court; each Tuesday and Thursday at the YMCA court. The program will get under way tomorrow and the time at each court will be from three until five o'clock, with Mrs. Dave Marti and Mrs. Ellwood Beckwith as instructors. Girls interested in these classes, which will be operated without charge, are asked to contact the Scout office immediately.

Another series of classes being set up for this group of older Scouts is instruction in horsemanship, to start on Saturday of this week. The hours will be from 10:00 a. m. until 12:00 noon, with C. Irwin Hochhaus of Russell, as the teacher. A fee of 50 cents will be charged for each period of instruction in this series of six lessons and these girls are also asked to register at the Girl Scout office. Transportation will be provided for these girls, it was stated.

BLUE STOCKING CLUB BEGINS NEW SEASON

Blue Stocking Club members will be entertained for their initial meeting of the season at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Moore at Garland.

Four members of the club, Mrs. Leon Johnson, Mrs. Warren R. Carlin, Mrs. Robert Winger and Mrs. R. L. Blodgett, were in Ridgeway to attend the fall meeting of the Northwest District, Pennsylvania State Federation of Women's Clubs.

About 300 women were hospitably entertained for the sessions at the Elk County Country Club, Mrs. Eccles, Meadville, who is vice president of the district, was in charge and outstanding speakers included Mrs. Harry Schaaf, Erie, the Federation president; Mrs. Benfer Zechman, junior vice president; Mrs. Rex Stower Clements, Philadelphia.

PRESBYTERIAN EVENTS
Wednesday—6:30, Westminster choir rehearsal; 7:30, senior choir rehearsal.

Thursday—10:00 to 4:00, the sewing room is open for those who wish to work on articles for the Fall Festival; 4:00, junior choir rehearsal; 6:00, Dickson Class will have a tureen dinner at the cottage of Mrs. Katherine Scallies, Hemlock; 8:00, Gerda DeForest Class will meet in the church parlors.

Saturday—10:00, junior choir rehearsal.

Teen-Agers—Here's a Test To See How Grown-Up You Are

TAKE a test, Teen-Agers:

If your parents have protested that you monopolize the family telephone, have you tried to limit your conversations to a reasonable time?

If you can't always have the family car when you want it, do you accept the fact good-naturedly, instead of sulking and fuming?

Do you show appreciation for all the things your family gives you and does for you, instead of making them feel that you regard yourself as underprivileged?

Do you accept without rebellion the fact that your parents have a right to want to know where you are going and with whom when you start out in the evening?

Do you do all the things for yourself that you are fully capable of doing instead of expecting your mother to be a sort of lady's maid or valet to you?

Do you take pride in having your friends meet your parents, taking the attitude that it is as important for your parents to like your friends as for your friends to think your parents are okay?

Do you do what you are asked to do about the house without acting put out or having to be reminded over and over?

TRY TO SEE PARENTS' VIEW

Do you ever try to see your parents' point of view, instead of expecting them always to see yours?

Do you treat your parents' friends with courteous respect?

Do you give your parents credit for knowing a little more than you do?

Do you try to give your parents some pleasure in your company, instead of acting bored if you have to spend an evening in their company?

Test yourselves, Teen-Agers. It will give you a good idea of how grown-up you really are.

Many Here for Weekend Tournament Sponsored by Marconi Bridge Club

The annual Warren Bridge Tournament was held this past weekend at the Marconi Outing Club. This tournament is sponsored each fall by the Marconi Bridge Club and is held under the auspices of the American Contract Bridge League.

Friday evening's play got underway with the mixed pair game for possession of the Barbara Dennison Trophy. Fourteen tables were in play, with Mrs. Marshall Nevins and J. W. Sheehan, both of Olean, N. Y., the winners. In second place were Mrs. M. A. Kornreich and A. J. Scalise, both of Warren. Mr. and Mrs. D. Crawford Freeman, Kane, were in third place.

Saturday, the open pair championship was played in two sessions. Twenty-six pairs qualified for the finals and the winners of the Mrs. Albert J. Rockwell Trophy were Fred Oht and S. T. McCarthy, both of Buffalo. In second place were Mrs. R. S. Gordon, Buffalo, and R. E. Needham, Greenville. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Conaway, Warren, were third; O. J. Sandel, Jamestown, and M. A. Kornreich, Warren, were in fourth place.

Also held Saturday evening was a 14-table consolation game for all players who failed to qualify for the open pair championship and any others who wished to participate.

North and South winners were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thornton, Oakfield, N. Y. In second place were Mrs. ret. Repasky, Youngstown, O., and Sylvester Mullen, Warren. Mrs. Betty Wilkinson and Melvin Smith, Kane, were winners East and West, with Mrs. S. Johnson and Mrs. F. Westman, Jamestown, second.

The final event in the three-day tournament was the team of four game played in two sessions Sunday. Mrs. R. W. Gordon and Fred Oht, Buffalo, R. E. Needham, Greenville, and Dr. R. H. Israel, Warren, comprised the winning team. In second place were M. A. Kornreich, D. A. Scalise, J. A. Scalise and J. R. Valone, Warren.

Junior Sizes for Women of Any Age

PICTURES TONIGHT AT COVENANT CHURCH
Pictures of Japan and the Philippines will be shown by the Rev. A. Cabot Johnson this evening in connection with the Crusade for Christ meetings being held this week in Bethlehem Covenant church. These pictures were taken during a recent visit to these countries and show the effects of the war and post-war conditions in these lands, and the progress that is being made there in the way of Christian missions. The meeting time is 7:30 p. m. and the public is cordially invited. These Crusade for Christ services will continue each evening through Friday and the Bethlehem church desires to share the ministry of these meetings with all of this community.

ELSIE ROSS SOCIETY
Elsie Ross members of Grace Methodist church will have a tureen dinner at 6:15 p. m. Tuesday at the church, each one to bring a tureen and table service, the rolls and coffee to be provided. All interested in helping to plan the year's events and in enjoying church fellowship are urged to be in attendance.

Dangerous Pet
To the Editor:
This story, headed "Pet May Eat Village Out of House," Home and People, comes from the March 3, 1951, issue of the Minneapolis Morning Tribune:
"PORT AUX POULES, Algeria (Reuters)—The natives of this little Arab village would like to see a man about a crocodile.
The man is an American soldier stationed here during the war. Nobody can remember his name.
"The crocodile, a big one, is swimming around in the neighborhood creek scaring the daylights out of the women and children. (Normally, there are no crocodiles this far north in Africa).
"Natives say the American soldier brought the man-killer here as a pet—just a little wriggler. Then he turned him loose in the creek and went back to the United States.
"Now the wriggler is more than 10 feet long and has a mean look in his eye."
Could the croc's name be John Barleycorn? And will the natives try to protect themselves from him by hanging a license around his neck and telling him not to bite anyone who is under age? Or will they have sense enough to shoot him?

RAGS
Courtesy of The National Voice, Los Angeles 13, Calif.
"Bishop I. . . have just said, takes me back to the remarkable language of the Episcopal Address of 1888 which declared:
"The Liquor traffic is so pernicious in all its bearings, so inimical to the interests of honest trade, so repugnant to the moral sense, so injurious to the peace and order of society, so hurtful to the home, to the Church, and to the body politic, and so utterly antagonistic to all that is precious in life, that the only proper attitude toward it for Christians is that of relentless hostility. It can never be legalized without sin."
Warren County W.C.T.U.

BAPTIST SOCIETY
A large attendance is hoped for at the meeting of the Nearer and Farther Lights Society of First Baptist church, to be held at the church at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday.

MENU SUGGESTIONS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
LET'S begin the eating week with three main dishes that take little preparation.

Corned Beef Hash Casserole
(Yield: 4 to 5 servings)
One can corned beef hash, 1/4 cup catsup, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 hard-cooked eggs, thinly sliced, 1/2 cup shredded cheese.

Combine hash, catsup and Worcestershire sauce. Place half the mixture in a one-quart casserole. Arrange slices from one egg on top. Sprinkle with half of the cheese. Repeat procedure using remaining ingredients. Bake in a moderate oven (350 deg. F.) for 20 minutes.

Spinach Scramble
(6 servings)
One pound hamburger, 2 tablespoons fat, dash of garlic salt, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 pound chopped spinach, or 1 package frozen spinach, 4 eggs, well beaten.

Brown the hamburger in hot fat in a heavy skillet. Season. Stir in the uncooked spinach and cook just enough to heat thoroughly. Pour in the eggs. Stir gently and cook 3 or 4 minutes longer to mix thoroughly and just set the eggs. Serve hot with tart relish.

Chicken Party Mold
(6-8 servings)
Two cups diced cooked chicken, 3 tablespoons unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 1 1/2 cups chicken stock, heated, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, juice of 1 lemon, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 eggs, beaten, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento, 1/2 cup chopped celery, 1/4 cup sliced pimiento olives, 1/2 cup evaporated milk, chilled, (or whipped cream).

Soak gelatin in cold water. While heating chicken stock, add seasonings, lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce. Combine hot stock and eggs. Cook over hot water until thickened. Add gelatin and chill until gelatin just begins to set. Add chicken, pimiento, celery and olives. Whip chilled milk stiff. Fold into chicken mixture and chill in a loaf pan (9 x 5 x 3 inches) or a 2-quart mold.

TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Sliced peaches, ready-to-eat cereal, crisp bacon, enriched toast, butter, or fortified margarine, marmalade, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Spaghetti with mushroom sauce, grated cheese, enriched crusty bread, sliced tomatoes with French dressing, stewed plums, tea, milk.

DINNER: Corned beef hash casserole, country-fried potatoes, stewed tomatoes, onions and green peppers, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, raw carrot sticks, fruit cup, gingerbread, coffee, milk.

en stock, heated, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, juice of 1 lemon, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 eggs, beaten, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento, 1/2 cup chopped celery, 1/4 cup sliced pimiento olives, 1/2 cup evaporated milk, chilled, (or whipped cream).

Muskies Biting in River and Lake

The big muskies were hungry this week-end, both in Chautauqua Lake and the Allegheny River, with the result that three of the finest specimens of the year were brought to The Times-Mirror office.

Father and son, D. F. Zaprowski and Max Zaprowski, of Stoneham, fought it out with two giants while trolling in Sherman's Bay, Lake Chautauqua, just at dusk on Saturday. Within a half hour of each other, Mr. Zaprowski and Max each landed a fine specimen, while at 8:45 a. m. Saturday, William Sidon of Warren RD 3, had pulled a big one out of the Allegheny at Starbrick.

Brought to The Times-Mirror, Sunday morning, to be photographed, Mr. Zaprowski's catch, upper picture, in left hand, measured 48 1/2 inches and weighed 32 1/2 pounds. The fish caught by his son, Max, was 46 1/2 inches long and weighed 26 1/2 pounds.

Max, who is 12 years old, is a member of Boy Scout Troop 11, sponsored by the Lacy PTA, and plans to enter his catch in the Boy Scout Fish Derby, a nation-wide contest.

Mr. Sidon was fishing for pike, trolling with a plug, when he made his fine catch at Starbrick, lower picture. It measured 38 inches in length and weighed 16 pounds.

When the Zaprowski station wagon was opened in Times Square to enable the photographer to view the fish, an interested crowd gathered immediately. Later, in a container provided by the Texas J. ch, the two fish were packed in ice by the Walker Creamery Products Company, and taken to Wilder Field to be viewed by hundreds who were attending the annual outing of the Warren Field and Stream Club.

MRS. LAURIAN HYDE

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Anil Follett, Conewango avenue, that the latter's daughter, Mrs. Laurian Hyde, died September 9 in Orinda, Calif. Mrs. Hyde was the former Signa Forsberg and lived in Warren all her life until 28 years ago. She was here only this spring to spend three months with family and friends. Her husband preceded her in death three years ago.

Besides her mother and stepfather, she leaves five brothers: Wallace, Detroit, Mich.; Arthur, Uniontown; George and Harry, in California; and Chester in Cleveland, O.

MRS. CHARLES COVELL

Services were conducted this afternoon at two o'clock at the Arnold Funeral Home in Titusville in memory of Mrs. Elvira Higley Covell, widow of Charles Covell, who was found dead in her home on Route 1, Grand Valley, Friday afternoon. Interment is being made in the Cheney cemetery near that place.

Mrs. Covell, who was under treatment of a Titusville physician for a heart ailment, was found dead on the kitchen floor of the Covell residence which she shared with her son and family, Leon Covell. Evidence indicated she probably suffered a heart attack about ten or eleven o'clock Friday morning while working around the kitchen. A certificate of death from heart ailment was issued by Coroner Ed Lowrey.

Mrs. Covell was born in Clearfield county on Feb. 19, 1869, a daughter of Lyman and Mary Hutchinson Higley. She was married on Sept. 8, 1886, at Fentonville, N. Y. She attended the Enterprise Methodist church.

The deceased leaves the following children, Mrs. Charles Wright, Sr., of Titusville, Route 1; Ralph Covell of Lyons; Esther Covell of Erie; Mrs. James Lynch of Erie and Leon Covell of Grand Valley, Route 1; and a sister, Mrs. Charles Walters of Tionesta. The following brothers and sisters preceded her in death: Emory, Vern, Mildred Dunham and Lillian Bradley.

NORRIS W. KNUPP

Norris W. Knupp, born at Starbrick on February 10, 1908, and lifelong resident of that community, died at his home at 10:45 a. m. Sunday.

Knupp, Ridge, Md.; Gilbert M. F. Knupp, Franklin; Rev. Clarence Knupp, West Newton; Captain Charles R. Knupp, with the U. S. Air Force in Japan.

Removal has been made to the Peterson Funeral Home, where friends are being received at the regular calling hours and from where services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday. Rev. C. B. Kinney, pastor of First Evangelical United Brethren church, will officiate and interment will be made in Westview cemetery, Starbrick.

JOSEPH E. SILL

Joseph E. Sill died Sunday shortly after noon at his home, Beaverdam, Corry RD 3. He was born August 14, 1857, in Union township, Erie county, where he lived until 1942 following the death of his wife the year before. Since that time he has been living with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Sill. When a young man he entered into the practice of a veterinarian, a profession he pursued until he was 80 years of age. He had been in ill health for the past eleven months. Besides the son Lynn, he is survived by a grandson, John Robert Sill, RD 4, Union City. Services will be held from the Lynn Sill home, RD 3, Corry, Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock and interment will be in the family lot in Evergreen cemetery, Union City.

Services Will Be Held at Corry Funeral Home

short distance from the Durlin home, stated when he drove a tractor past the house about 4:15 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Durlin were quarrelling in the front yard and on the porch of the farm house. He said they were shouting and appeared to be striking at each other.

A short time later, the daughter, Patricia, came upon the quarrelling couple, and alarmed, she rushed to the Eddy home, but not before, she said, she heard her father mention the name of a neighbor whom he was known to have accused of being too friendly with Mrs. Durlin.

Shortly after the daughter Patricia arrived at the Eddy home, members of that family and others in the neighborhood heard three shots in close succession. A call was placed for the state police and first persons on the scene found the body of Mrs. Durlin sprawled in the yard just off the front porch steps. The husband was found on the porch with the top of his head blown away by a charge from the gun. It was not discovered until after examination at the Bracken & Keating Funeral Home in Corry, that Mrs. Durlin had been shot twice. The first blast, no doubt, ripping into her abdomen in the left side a few inches below the belt line, and the second tore away most of her head. Both doubtless died instantly.

The 16-gauge shotgun was lying near the body of Durlin, officers were informed the husband had purchased the gun only recently for his wife to use in shooting woodchucks on the farm. She was said to have been an excellent shot and often went into the woods with the children, hunting the animals.

Officers were informed that the two-story, six-room farm house had been the scene of many argument between the two, in most of which the husband accused the wife of infidelity. Several persons interviewed told of hearing him make remarks of a threatening nature. The officials were also informed that the family had presumed the gun had been hidden from Mr. Durlin because of his actions and remarks.

Guy Goodwin Durlin was born at Pittsfield RD 1, December 20, 1881, and spent most of his life in that section of the county, where he followed the farming business and worked in nearby factories. He had been employed recently in the Corry Brush Works. The couple had resided at the present home in Bear Lake six or seven years. They were married about 17 years.

Della Swigart Durlin was born February 7, 1909, at Worthington, Pa. She is survived by five children born to the couple, a son by a former marriage and stepdaughter as follows: Winifred Joann, 16; Patricia, 14; Joseph, 12; James, 9 and Tommy, 8; all at home; Glenn Durlin, aged 18, at Mrs. Marjorie Rhinehart, Greenville. There are three grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren to the couple.

Mrs. Durlin is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Olga Swigart, and three sisters and four brothers, Mrs. Louise Blaney, Whitesburg, Pa.; Mrs. Grace Ross, Vandergrift, and Mrs. Olive Shuller, Harwick; Fred Swigert, Pittsburgh; Homer Swigert, Greenville; Frank Swigert, Worthington, and Staff Sgt. Kenneth Swigert, of Albuquerque, N. M.

Mr. Durlin, in addition to the children mentioned above, is survived by a sister, Mrs. J. A. McCoy, who operates the McCoy Nursing Home near Pittsfield, and two brothers, Glenn Durlin, Pittsfield RD 1, and Leslie Durlin, Jamestown, N. Y.

cents to 2 cents a pound more to the housewife for beef cuts.

In adjusting wholesale beef prices, the OPS also moved to correct what it said had been too high ceilings for the better cuts of beef and too low ceilings for cheaper cuts.

The good steaks weren't selling too well, so OPS plans to cut choice porterhouse, for instance, about four cents a pound. Less desirable cuts which people were scrambling for will get increased ceilings.

6-0 Victory Over Franklin High Gives Dragons a 2-0 Lead In the District 10 Conference

A potent squad of Warren High Dragons set their eyes toward a District 10, Section 2, football crown at Miller-Sibley Field in Franklin Friday night, when they lashed the Nurserymen with a 6-0 whitewashing to take a 2-0 conference lead.

The second straight win for the Leidigmen this season, they dominated the game from the kickoff and made Franklin Coach John Ram eat his words, quoted at the final practice session of the Nurserymen before the Warren game: "We're optimistic about taking a game."

Dean Vesling and Toby Shea, fast charging and deceptive veteran backs, paced the overwhelming attack and shared scoring honors for the four Warren touchdowns.

The Dragon line was clicking and the shifting lineup of the Leidigmen proved a big factor in the rushing and passing offense.

In the opening period, Vesling amped 18 yards to the one yard line to set up Shea's first drive, and then swept around right end in the second stanza for 7 yards and his own TD.

Later that quarter, Shea bucked the line from the three-yard line for the third tally and Vesling went 15 yards for the final score in the fourth.

Berdine kicked off for the Blue and White, with Ace returning the kick to his own 25. A pitchout to Dick Manson was good for 10 yards, but the play was called back for a five yard penalty and the Nurserymen on the 20.

Two plays brought the ball to the 23 and an Ace-Brown combination put the ball on the 40 for a one first down earned by Franklin during the first half.

Derrell Ace lost two yards on a pitchout, Manson lost another, and Ace Pessuzzi put the real dampener on as he threw Ace for a 20 yard loss on an attempted pass, forcing the Nurserymen to punt.

Dud Terry, who started for his first time this year, returned the punt 10 yards to the Warren 40, from where the Dragons started a 60-yard drive and the payoff. Again carrying, Terry lugged the ball to the 47 and Shea went right tackle eight yards to the Franklin 45 for a first time.

Veteran quarterback George Calise picked up four more around the end, Vesling lost four, and then took a Scalise aerial for 28 yards and a first on the 17 yard line. An off tackle carry by Vesling gained 16 yards, Shea hit the line for the initial score, and lugged for the extra point.

Two plays after the Warren kickoff, Dragon returner, Chuck Conaway intercepted Ace's pass on the opposition's 45 and came back to the 41. On the third down, he lugged the leather six yards and moved the sticks to the 30.

Vesling chalked up another first on the 20 on a pitchout from Scalise, and Shea bucked the line for the first time at the end of the quarter.

From there, Terry went around right end on a reverse that paid off with five yards, and Shea made the first down through the line for one yard.

The line opened up left tackle and Vesling through to the six, Shea went off right tackle to the five, and the former fought his way wide around right end for the remaining distance.

Shea busted over the chalked line for the EP, but Warren received a 15-yard penalty for holding, to call the play back. Despite all, Scalise hit Vesling at the five, where the receiver evaded several Franklin defense men to make the extra point.

Manson brought Berdine's 50-yard kickoff back to his own 37, and on the third down, Berdine recovered Brown's fumble to take possession of the Nurserymen's 40. For the moment Coach Uram's defense tightened up and held the Blue and White to five yards' gain as they took over on their own 35.

Bulging Batting Averages Notched In Semi-Pro Loop

There were some fantastic batting averages compiled during the past baseball season in the American Legion Semi-Pro loop.

Felix Kozlowski, of the Dunkirk team, led the parade with a big .467, representing 14 hits in 30 official times at bat in 10 games. Next to him was Gordy Black of Jamestown with .433, representing 13 hits in 30 times at bat in eight games.

Nonny Castagnino, third sacker for the Warren Merchants, hit .341—usually rated a pretty fair clip—but it was only good enough to rank him ninth on the batting ladder, while the .302 average posted by his team mate, Bill Massa, was only good enough for 25th place.

Nonny clouted 15 hits and scored eight runs in 44 tries at the plate in 11 contests. Massa notched 13 hits and tallied seven runs in 43 chances, also in 11 games.

Best team batting in the league was credited to Frewsburg with a .282 average. Batting average for the Warren Merchants was .246.

Tom Juliano won the only game he pitched for the Warren nine, and also shared honors with four other players for home run honors, each of the five getting two round-trippers during the season.

Top pitcher of the league was Lyle (Lefty) Parkhurst of the Westfield team, who was credited with seven wins in seven starts.

Optimistic Report Made on Ducklings

Game Protector David R. Titus of Warren makes this encouraging report on ducklings liberated in his district under the duck program of the Game Commission:

"On July 6, 15 wild ducklings were released on an active beaver dam on Wildcat Run. On that date, 25 wild ducklings were liberated at the upper end of Chapman Jam, also.

"On Tuesday, July 24, I checked the beaver dam on Wildcat and was able to locate 10 of the birds. On July 31, I checked the upper end of Chapman Dam and found all 25 of them in one flock. These young ducks showed considerable growth and not one had been lost during the 25 days since their release."

Queen City Murder Case

By Wm. G. Bogart

Chapter 1

SEVEN years he had waited for this night. Seven endless years he had watched for the separate parts of an intricate pattern to fall into place. A gambler would have told him that the chances against all three things happening at one specific time were about a million to one. Another person would have given up in despair after a few months, hoping for such a combination of things to occur.

But not this man. It was the one thread of life that had kept him from going insane during his ten years in the Ohio State Penitentiary.

First, there must be a guard built along his own tall, angular lines, an unfriendly sort of man who mingled little with his associates, who seldom paused to pass the time of day.

Guard Judson was that sort of plodding individual. He had waited over eight years before Guard Judson came to work at the prison.

Then it had to be a night when Guard Judson worked the short shift, going off duty ahead of the other guards, leaving the prison yard alone, passing out through the big gate which would be opened and closed automatically by the watchman in the circular tower atop the high wall.

Also, a stormy or dark night best suited the plan.

Thus, waiting for the various phases of the pattern to click together at one and the same time, ten years had passed. But the moment had come, as he knew it would. He was ready.

He was perspiring, yet he was not nervous. He waited. He knew that Guard Judson was in the corridor now, making his last round before going off duty for the night.

His hands, long and bony and powerful, kept working his knuckles. Ten years of prison had given him his six-foot frame a gaunt thinness. Yet he had lost none of his strength, especially in his hands. Day after day, long nights on end, he had grasped these heavy steel bars, feeling the strength that was in his hands, working his fingers on the bars and feeling the tension in his forearms.

Rising from the hard cot, he moved across the small room to the wash basin. Water already filled the sink to the rim, through the rubber plug was not blocking the drain. He turned on both faucets, watched the water quickly overflow the basin and spill onto the cement floor. He shut off the faucets. Several rivulets of water followed cracks in the floor to the cell door. He stepped over to the door, grasped the heavy bars and waited until Guard Judson reached his cell.

Then he said, "The sink's clogged."

GUARD JUDSON paused directly outside the cell. He was a tall, gaunt man. His movements were unhurried. Each day he plodded through the eight hours of his shift, awaiting the end of the day as one of the prisoners might await the end of his sentence and freedom.

"What?" he asked. "Again?"

"Again," said the man within the cell. His bony features were without expression.

"Did you clean out the drain?"

"Yeah. Something's plugged down in the bend of the pipe." The convict's bony face was expressionless and bland. "We'll need the rubber plunger." Tonight he had jammed small bits of paper down the drain until the sink was stopped up.

A frown came into Guard Judson's muddy eyes and quickly went away again. With any other inmate, he might have become suspicious. But this lifer never gave any trouble.

He looked down, saw the water that had now run outside the cell and was soaking his shoes. He moved aside. The lifer merely stood there, indifferent to the wetness around his own feet.

"Dammit!" Guard Judson muttered and started off down the corridor.

The convict said, "You'd better bring a bucket too."

The guard returned shortly with plunger and stop bucket. He passed the plunger through the bars. "Try this," he ordered with some impatience.

The lifer's hands took hold of the wooden handle. He moved back to the wash basin. Keeping his back to Guard Judson, he placed the rubber cup of the plunger down into the water, but he held the handle in such a manner that the cup did not fit squarely over the drain. That way, there was no suction. He started pumping on the handle, merely pumping water instead of holding the rubber cup over the jammed drain.

Finally, Guard Judson said, "Wait a minute!" A heavy key grated in the cell lock and the door opened. The prisoner did not turn.

Guard Judson came up beside him. He said, "Let's see." He held the stop bucket in his hand, looked around, saw the tin drinking cup, picked that up. The lifer stopped to one side.

Holding the bucket in his left hand, Guard Judson scooped water out of the basin with the cup. He kept scooping until he had lowered the level of the water, so that it would not splash over when he used the plunger. He set the bucket down on the floor and said, "Now, give me that thing."

He took the plunger in both hands and started pumping over the drain. The rubber suction cup fitted squarely over the drain now and water did not splash.

The tall lifer took one careful step sideways behind Guard Judson and placed his big hands on the man's throat. His powerful fingers closed viselike before there was any outcry.

After a while Guard Judson was dead.

East was dealt so many low cards in today's hand that he gave up hope. He was sure the opponents would get to a game—perhaps a slam and he wasn't really surprised when they eventually bid six spades. Instead of looking for a chance to set the contract, East played listlessly and carelessly. One slip was enough to let South make the contract.

West opened the king of clubs, and dummy won with the ace. Declarer hopefully tried two rounds of trumps, since the slam would be unbeatable if all the trumps could be drawn in two rounds. When it became apparent that West had a third trump, South had something to worry about. West had already bid clubs and supported hearts. He was obviously short in diamonds. This all flashed through declarer's mind very quickly. Without stopping for breath, he continued with four more rounds of trumps. On one of these East casually threw a low diamond from his "worthless" ace-card holding. That set up South's last diamond and assured the slam contract.

East's play was very ill-advised.

to be sure. The bidding should have told him that his diamonds were more precious than gold or silver. It was clear that West and dummy had the clubs between them and that West and East had complete control of the hearts. If South had nothing much in hearts and nothing much in clubs, why had he bid so vigorously? Obviously, he had a spade-diamond two-suiter. Equally obvious, the defender who held diamonds had to keep them no matter what else he parted with.
